| 1 The finest cane I have owned, and one of the best folk art canes in the country. From a distance it appears to be made of vertebrae discs, but closer inspection reveals that it is actually finely carved ivory made to resemble vertebrae, with the individual pieces secured by over 100 small pins of baleen or possibly gutta percha. Topped by a nicely detailed dogs head, also carved ivory. Along the upper shaft the lettering is scrimshawed and inlaid with red sealing wax "Presented to Lieut Gen Winfield Scott by Fred B(2)enke Turner, carver, Paterson NJ, A Soldier in the Mexican War". Near tip of shaft similar letters read "Down with Treason". Obviously given to Scott near the outbreak of the Civil War. Excellent condition with original 2" iron tip. | 14,000. |
| 2 I've always liked historical paintings, and this is one of my favorites. Large 23 X 31 oil on canvas in fine 30 X 38 frame with gilt liner. Scene of Nathan Hale about to be hanged. British officer with sword to right center, weeping family and friends at far right. The British soldier stringing the noose is a Negro. Superb detail and composition, excellent condition, circa 1830's - 40's. | 4,500. |
| 3 A visually striking Northwest coast carved and inlaid rifle, Winchester Model 94, caliber 30 WCF, serial number 241231 (made in 1904). Carved totem stock with large abalone inlays for eye and teeth. A wonderful Indian artifact in excellent condition. | 3,500. |
| 4 Very rare period cabinet photo Calamity Jane, by C E Finn, Livingston MT. Reverse with long handwritten inscription in period brown ink. "This photo of Calamity Jane, woman Army Scout ... given by her to Edward Mehlinger ... Cleveland Ohio ... who at that time was a scout with the 4th US Cavalry." She displays a Sharps rifle, a pistol in a crossdraw holster, and a wide cartridge belt. Broken lower right corner, minor horizontal crease to left of her head. Only the second photo of her I have ever owned. | 3,950. |
| 5 Unique 7 1/2 X 9 pen & ink folk art cartoon for Aaron Ogden, Federalist Governor of New Jersey 1812-13. "Huzza for the good old Federalist Ship New Jersey", 4-line poem below, scene of ship flying 7 large flags, each with slogans. "Governor Ogden and the Peace Party - No War, No Democrats - War, Blood, Taxes, Loans - Farmers, Mechanics & Sailors Rights Equally Protected ...". At the sternboard a group of men are being thrown in the ocean "Here they go - Madison & Co". Signed at bottom by the maker Rachel Sharps. Excellent condition, a few insignificant minor spots. | 2,450. |
| 6 Probably unique 7" pincushion doll, fully 3-dimensional. Porcelain head and torso, lace bodice and long skirt both trimmed with green/purple ribbons. Green/purple/white woven silk flag "Votes for Women". Nearly excellent, few minor losses to silk trim. | 1,750. |
| 7 Unique and historic Civil War souvenir. 2 1/2" flat piece of pine inscribed "Piece of the scaffold on which Capt Wirz (the Andersonville Prison Keeper) was hung in the yard of the Old Capitol Prison Nov 10 '65, Washington DC". Accompanied by original three page letter from William Cuthbert, Sherbourne Barracks, Wash DC Nov 26 1865. He writes to his sister, telling her they expect to be discharged soon, that his company witnessed the execution, and that he is enclosing this wood souvenir. You couldn't ask for better provenance! Excellent | 2,000. |
| 8 Original Anthony (Brady) stereo view #2438 "Gen Custer at his Head Quarters in the field, Army of the Potomac, VA". He's seated on camp stool, large dog on ground, open tent to rear. Katz 38, taken July 1864. Slightest soiling to mount, excellent. | 2,500. |
| 9 5" lacquered tin snuff box, man with pipe seated on large tobacco barrel. "Great Success to Cornwallis" in diagonal stripes at sides. Few small minor spots, excellent. | 1,850. |
| 10 Extremely rare "trade card" (actually heavy paper stock) circa 1863, 2 1/2 X 3 1/2. "New Haven Arms Co - Manufacturers of Henry's Repeating Rifles, Carbines, Muskets and Shot Guns and Fixed Ammunition for the same. Henry A Chapin, Sec'y - OF Winchester, Pres". Excellent condition, slightest insignificant foxing not worth mentioning. Larry Wilson thought enough of this piece to blow it up to a full page illustration for the introduction of his classic reference Winchester - An American Legend. | 1,950. |
| 11 I really like this! The nicest enamel silver cigarette case I have had. Blonde reclines on pillows, wearing transparent bra, panties, garters, fish net stockings. Stippled silver spacer separates scene from border of guilloche blue enamel. Reverse side all silver with about 150 rows of tiny 'ocean waves'. Pristine condition. | 2,950. |
| 12 Unique and very large cutlery display set circa 1850. 37" knife, 24" Fork. Blade of knife engraved in 7" oval cartouche. "Used at a barbecue held near the site of the Washington Monument, Baltimore, before its erection in commemoration of Washingtons Birthday". Knife with 9 1/2 ivory handle in form of lion, high relief eagle, liberty cap, bust John Adams. Fork with similar 8" handle in lion form, eagle, portrait Washington. Condition generally excellent. A couple of cracks to the ivory, as expected. One of the lions eyebrows is chipped on the knife, as is the tip of GW's nose on the fork. One of the four meat clamps on the side of the fork is missing. Note that the photo has a reflection at the tip of the knife blade - the blade is complete and undamaged. Spectacular mid 19th century display item, worthy of the finest knife or historical collection. | 16,500. |
| 13 Very rare 9" creamware pitcher circa 1790. Three men grasp pole with liberty cap. Man at center is dead ringer for Washington, but is not identified. "Union to the People of America - Civil and Religious Liberty to All Mankind". Arman U4 (this is the example shown in the book). Reverse patriotic design, linked states, eagle, flag "Peace Plenty and Independence". Federal eagle/shield below spout. Appears perfect, but has had some superb restoration at spout. Only the third example I have seen in 25 years. | 5,500. |
| 14 The best advertising sign I've had in years! Gorgeous stone litho in period frame 20 X 27. Dr. Russell's Pepsin Calisaya Bitters, Chicago. Huge bottle draped in American flag atop world globes. Pretty brunette in flowing pink dress. Near mint, condition 9. | 4,250. |
| 15 An outstanding early western labor item. 9 X 12 bronze tablet from the Telluride mining strike. Upper part in design of American flag "Is Colorado in America?", with the 13 stripes displaying text with the miners complaints. Martial law declared - Free Press throttled - Free Speech denied - Wholesale Arrests - Right to bear arms questioned - corrupt corporations control the govt - mob law - militia strike breakers - etc. Scene below shows union miner Henry Makia chained to telephone pole for vagrancy and "refusing to work in a filthy cesspool under the bayonets of the state militia". Excellent condition, great content and graphics. | 2,950. |
| 16 Large 10" Liverpool creamware pitcher, George Washington & Ben Franklin beside map of eastern United States. Arman W15, very rare variety with the entire design in colored enamels - green, red, blue, yellow. Reverse ship with US Flag, beneath spout is 1804 Jefferson quote about entangling alliances. Outstanding appearance, some superb quality restoration by handle and rim. | 4,750. |
| 17 This wasn't intended for this part of the catalog, but I had an empty space. Terrific cabinet photo by Hall, Meadville PA. Four ragged young men holding American flags and two cloth banners (one worn like apron) that read "COXEY'S ARMY". Few tiny surface scuffs/scratches, fine plus. | 450. |
| 18 Highly desirable 6" plate with alphabet border, portrait "President Abraham Lincoln". Enamel highlights in orange-red. Perfect, circa 1861. | 2,000. |
| 19 The best reference available on early American political and patriotic ceramics. "Anglo-American ceramics - Transfer Printed Creamware and Pearlware for the American Market 1760-1860" by David and Linda Arman. Over 1000 items including several hundred from my own collection. Published privately in 1998, never available in bookstores. David Arman was my best friend. He died several years ago, and I recently bought the remaining supply of books from his widow. Previously sold at $95. Now offered postpaid for | 50. |

Believe it or not - Patti is REALLY back on Ebay. The large addition to our home is finally finished, so it won't be taking up all of her time. She thought 8,500 sq ft was too small for everything we do, so we now have 11,000.

In addition to the major categories offered in our catalogs (political, photographs, military, Old West) she will be concentrating on advertising, breweriana, toys, character collectibles, cowboy heroes, worlds fairs, sports, small English ceramics, autographs, and many other interesting items from the mid 19th to mid 20th centuries. She will be going through loads of boxes & cabinets that haven't been opened in years!
